NaVCIS – BRITISH PARKING ASSOCIATION

NaVCIS are working with partners at the British Parking Association in relation to safer parking facilities for HGV Drivers

The British Parking Association (BPA) is the UK’s leading trade association for the parking industry.

BPA manages the Safer Parking Scheme (SPS): a Police-CPI (Crime Prevention Initiative) backed and approved UK-wide accreditation. The award is known as Park Mark; currently 15 lorry parks have this award. Public sector and private lorry parking operators interested in knowing about how the SPS might benefit your business operations and future plans for a specific lorry park award are invited to contact us.

<https://www.britishparking.co.uk/Safer-Parking-Scheme/-/Park-Mark>

A Park Mark is awarded to parking facilities that pass a rigorous risk assessment conducted by the police and the BPA area manager. The assessments include management and maintenance of the facility, ensuring that there are appropriate levels of surveillance, lighting, signage and cleanliness. These criteria are known to reduce the opportunity for crime and create a safer environment.

If the site achieves the award, the operator is entitled to display the Park Mark logo and is also featured www.parkmark.co.uk and the SNAP website.

Mark Stanojevic from Sutterton Truck Stop, awarded Park Mark in November 2020, said “This is a great asset to us; it lets drivers know we are serious about protecting them and their vehicles. To be the first truck park to receive the award in Lincolnshire is a fantastic achievement.”
